www.acet.ectil.org

Sponsors:
Austrian Ministry of Justice, Kulturabteilung der Stadt Wien, Munich Re

→ Overview

This Conference will provide practitioners and academics alike with the opportunity to learn about the most significant tort law developments in Europe in 2014. Experts from across the continent will present highlights from their contributions to the Yearbook, European Tort Law 2014, which will be published after the Conference. An overview of developments in EU law will also be provided, and a concluding summary will identify and assess the most important emerging trends.

The Conference begins on Thursday evening with an opening lecture by Simon Whittaker (University of Oxford) and concludes with a special session on Dispersed, Low-Value Losses on Saturday morning. Throughout the Conference, there will be ample opportunity for discussion and debate, both in the formal proceedings and during the breaks.

Institute for European Tort Law and European Centre of Tort and Insurance Law

The Conference and Yearbook are a collaboration between the European Centre of Tort and Insurance Law (ECTIL), an independent association, and the Institute for European Tort Law of the Austrian Academy of Sciences and the University of Graz (ETL). The results of ECTIL and ETL research are published in their co-edited series, Tort and Insurance Law (de Gruyter). See further www.ectil.org and www.etl.oeaw.ac.at. ECTIL and ETL also provide institutional support for the European Group on Tort Law, whose core project is the drafting of Principles of European Tort Law (see www.egtl.org).

Journal of European Tort Law (JETL)

The peer-reviewed Journal of European Tort Law was launched in 2010 as the first law review to be dedicated to this important and dynamic area of European private law. The Journal is published on behalf of ECTIL and ETL by de Gruyter (Boston/Berlin) and appears three times a year. Papers from the Conference session on Dispersed, Low-Value Losses will be included in a forthcoming special issue. See further www.degruyter.com/jetl.

ECTIL Supporting Members

ECTIL welcomes applications to become Supporting Members. The minimum annual membership fee is Eur 1,000. Supporting Members receive copies of all ECTIL publications, starting from the year they become a member (usually three or four publications per year). Supporting Members are also entitled to a 50% reduction on the fee for the Annual Conference on European Tort Law.

Accommodation in Vienna

A number of rooms for conference participants have been provisionally reserved at the HOTEL REGINA* (Eur 100 for a single room incl. breakfast; available until March 11, 2015). Please contact the hotel directly and make your own reservation, using the booking reference '14th Annual Conference'. A credit card number will be required to secure the reservation.

Heurigen Evening

(not included in the Conference fee)

Enjoy Viennese wines and Austrian specialties at this casual get-together of Conference speakers, participants, and the ECTIL/ETL team on Friday evening (April 10, 2015). In Vienna, Heuriger is the name for the wine harvested the previous autumn and also for the taverns where it is sold. Most of these inns are located in picturesque wine-growing villages at the edge of the Vienna Woods.

Price per person: Eur 35 (including food and beverages); early booking and payment is much appreciated (preferably together with the Conference registration).

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

The Conference is accredited for CPD purposes by the Law Society of England and Wales and the Consiglio Nazionale Forense in Italy (11 hours credit). It may also be possible to arrange CPD accreditation with other professional organisations.

Please indicate in advance if you would like CPD credit for attending this event.

All information correct at time of going to press.
