

International Conference & Launch of the South EU Google Data Governance Chair

This International Conference will mark the launch and the beginning of the activities of the South EU Google Data Governance Chair that will allow scientific reflection and research in the academic field on data governance in the context of the European countries.

The main objective of the Conference will be to analyze the challenges for Law and Data Governance in the context of the European framework in areas such as Big Data, Data Driven Innovation, Artificial Intelligence or International Personal Data Flows.

Panel I

Future landscape of data governance

Panel II

International Personal Data Flows

Members of the Board:

José Luis Piñar (Universidad CEU San Pablo, Madrid)

Maria da Graça Canto Moniz (Universidade Nova de Lisboa)

Georgios Yannopoulos (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)

Vincenzo Zeno-Zencovich (Università RomaTre)

Save the Date

June 24, 2021

16:00h - 19:30h
(CET)

Click here to register

